For the moment all interest is fixed on the territory occupied by the French left wing and the German right wing, where the most determined fighting of the battle line is going on. The allied forces are gradually moving northward and according to the French official statement, the battle continues to develop more and more toward the north, the object of this being to get beyond the extremity of the German line for the great outfianking movement which has been the object of the allies' operations.

A continuation of this advance to the north would bring the allies to Cambrai, a strongly fortified town, in Nord and beyond that as far as the circle could be drawn.

FISHERMEN MISTOOK

MINE FOR A WINE CASK Nine Men Aboard Killed.

Rome, Sept. 20 (by way of Paris, 7 p. m.)—Details of the destruction of the fishing boat off Rimini by a floating mine show that the fishermen mistook the mine for a wine cask which they sought to recover. Throwing out they sought to recover. Throwing out a line they drew the supposed cask toward them and when it touched their craws an explosion occurred. The boat was blown to pieces and all the nine men on board were killed. Members of other fishing crews in the vicinity were wounded by flying splinters from the unfortunate fishermen. Naval experts express the opinion that hundreds of mines from the Austrian coast are floating toward Italy and as a consequence all steamship lines operating to Dalmatia, Montenegro, Albania and Greece from Italian ports have suspended sallings. Ships which have been operating between Italy and Constantinople and other Elack Sea ports have limited their trips to stops at Saloniki and Dedeaghatch. Dedeaghatch Seafaring interests demand that the government require prompt and thor-ough satisfaction from Austria.

EVIDENCE OF APPROACHING ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS

Shipping Bill May Be Taken Up at a Special Session in November.

Washington, Sept. 30 .- Continued conferences among the democrats in both houses today gave strong indica-tion of the success of the plan for adpournment of congress by the middle of October.

Nearly all majority members of the house, except a few headed by Representative Henry of Texas, are aligned with the movement undertaken by Democratic Leader Underwood, with the approval of President Wilson to put off the administration ship purchase bill until after the November chase bill until after the November elections. The proposal is that the house shall begin recessing three days house shall begin recessing three days at a time next week, so that most of its members may go to their home districts immediately and that congress shall adjourn about October 15. The shipping bill would be taken up as soon as congress reconvenes either at the regular session in December or at a special session called for the purpose in November.

Republican leaders of both houses also are in accord with this plan and there is a general determination to maintain quorums so as to carry it through.

Representative Underwood, said to-night he probably would be able in a few days to enter into a pact with Republican Leader Mann, with the necessary unanimous consent for re-cesses by the house. This would be a gentlemen's agreement' to take up only routine business after the recess-

The commission, however, suspended tariffs filed by the New York Central lines under which mileage books sold prior to October 1 on a basis of two cents a mile would not be honored for transportation after that date.

The suspended tariffs provided that the unused portions of the books would be redeemed by the selling lines at the purchase price. The commission viewed these tariffs as a violation of contract and therefore sustion of contract and therefore sus-pended them until January 29, 1915, pending an investigation,
